Dear Parents,
Greetings for the day!

“Yoga is not just some exercise, it is much more - it expands your awareness, sharpens your intellect, and enhances your intuitive ability” – Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar

We are elated to share with you all that Our Surat city has been bestowed to host the initiative of marshaling an event on 21st June 2023, The World International Yoga Day, which will be going to make a record in “Guinness Book of World Records.”

Our hearts are throbbing with immense joy to announce that we, the proud residents of Surat are going to be part of the glorious and exceptional phenomenon of practicing Yoga under the leadership of the respected Chief Minister of the Government of Gujarat. Over 1.25 lakh enthusiasts, the crowd includes SCHOOL and College students, government officials, industry people, housewives and working women, are expected to participate in this exceptional event. The figure definitely is anticipated to claim its promising place to be secured into the GUINNESS BOOK of WORLD RECORDS 📖 !!!

The school requests the young students of classes VI to XII to participate exuberantly and carve their names in this historical rarity of an event.

Kindly note:

School has registered the students of 6 to 12.

An SMS along with a link will be sent on your REGISTERED phone number. We suggest you to upload your child’s selfie and be a part of the Grand Event.
